

Angel Merit Badges

I send this article out about once a year. I never tire of doing it myself and I feel you will just LOVE the uplifting surges of JOY you get from doing this!

Angel Proudly Wearing 'Merit Badge'

(Scroll to the very bottom for demonstration...of how to do it.)

So the first angel says to the second angel..."Were did you get that awesome Merit Badge"

The second angel answers..."Oh, I got it from this really awakened human"

Angel Merit Badges? Do you think that is silly?

Here's what happened...

About a year ago, I sent out an energy exercise entitled, "How to Shift Energy Instantly".

I explained how to do this easily...

- Pretend like you are a fisherman
- Weave a net of pink light, intertwine some gold filaments for purity
- Hurl the net over a person or situation you want to see shifted (no worries, if the target doesn't want the net of light, it won't even land on them)

(I have seen absolute miracles after using this love-light technique)

So yesterday, a friend was telling me that his boss was being so mean to him that he was about to explode (and maybe get fired)
He felt so weak from the assault of 'meanness' that he did not have the strength to do the pink net technique himself...so I did it for him. (well he is a Really good friend)

For this case, I used my psychic abilities to ask his (the mean guy's) angels permission. Well, the 3 spirits that walked closest to him were on the dark side. His meanness had attracted them and they were parasitically 'feasting' on his constant negativity.

I asked the 3 darker energies if they wanted a 'pink net of love light'. They were surprised, shocked actually...yet very eager to receive. I quickly created then hurled a net for each one of them and they were delighted that someone had sent them a 'net of pink love light'

With the mischievous energies distracted...

(and absorbing some of that light) I was then able to work on the 'mean man' (BTW...I'm starting to feel bad about calling him 'mean')

I was guided to create a mini-net for each section of his brain. His seeming 'meanness' was coming from a very imbalanced brain. of course, I also hurled a big net over his entire energy field.

I checked back in with my friend the next day and he said, "Rebecca, I owe you profound thanks, I haven't heard a negative word or look from the man since we talked!"

Hurray for Pink nets of love and light...

So, how does this apply to angels and spirits and merit badges?
My guides say...

“It is time for humans to ‘wake up’ and realize they were given dominion over all things. When humanity realizes the tremendous power they have to ‘bless’- it will be a great day indeed. By blessing your angels, guides and spirits... you are leaping ahead in spiritual evolution!

This is a sign humanity is truly ready to move into the next golden Age

My guides continued...ask people to create these ‘nets of light’- call the name of the angel or spirit, then hurl the net with blessing.

These nets will be displayed like a ‘merit badge’ and all the universe will rejoice.

Every angel, spirit, energy form, you send a net to will be proudly displaying their ‘merit badges’ all over the heavens. This will translate into all dimensions and levels of creation. (I think they are having a contest to who can get the most ‘merit badges’.)

Why?

Because every single ‘merit badge’ is a sign that another human has ‘woke up’.

Yes, this is a sign that you realize you do indeed have the power to bless the spirit world...they crave our blessings and this is just so cotton-picken wonderful I want to shout it from the rooftops!

Here’s how you do it:

Step 1. Intention- whom do you want to bless with your net of pink and gold love light?

Step 2. Creation-create a pink net, intertwine it with gold filaments (do this with your imagination- the most potent creation tool in the universe)

Step 3. Hurl the net with blessings and good intent over the angel, person, situation. I always love Pictures to help me visualize...

Hurl the Net

That's it...you can create these nets in an instant and create as many as you like. You can even do it for yourself.

Since getting this guidance I have created and sent nets to

- My dog Sparky who got hit by a car
- My mom and dad who are crossed over
- All my angels and guides(and all the archangels)
- Saints
- Mother Teresa
- Azna
- Every time, I think of a spirit- I create and send a net-what fun...

Questions?

Q. How many times can I bless my angels?

A. As often as you like ...please, they love it.

Q. What if I don't know the names of my angels?

A. Just say...All my guardian angels, this is for you. (create several nets because you have several angels)

Q. Is there any danger of 'unwanted energy connection'?

A. No, because you are hurling the net and disconnecting from it.

Q. Should I ask permission?

A. Your angels are eager to receive this blessing- if you are netting a human, the net will not be able to land on them if they do not want it. Their energy field will deflect it.

It's all good folks...now get busy and hurl some nets.

I'm going to check in psychically soon and see how many nets are out there. If we all do this, we can flood the heavens with merit badges in the blink of an eye.

Here is our chance to show the spirit world that we are awake and ready for the golden age of less struggle and more victorious living.

Love, Love, Love,
Rebecca
