

Burning Questions: Was Mary Magdalene a virgin? Was Jesus a virgin? What were Her early temple trainings like?

*For the purpose of this book, Mary is allowing me to use the name Jesus or the Christ because that is the name most of us are familiar with.

Keep in mind that this book is a series of early morning conversations between Mary Magdalene and I.

Some of the chapters are very short...and some are longer. All are revealing and sometimes surprising!

Rebecca:

As I am sitting here with pen in hand...I keep feeling Mary Magdalene wants to talk about the question burning in everyone's mind... Was she a virgin when she came to Jesus? We already know they had wonderful, sacred, sexual encounters.

(That old crap about Mary Magdalene being a harlot was total fabrication by miss interpretation. The arm bracelet she wore identified her as a priestess from the temples of Isis. Some interpreted the bracelet as a sign of being a sexual prostitute.

(The duties of sexual priestess are explained later in this book. NOTHING compares to the depth of healing levels these Sexual healing priestess were able to deliver. In NO WAY could this healing be associated with prostitution!)

Still, that brings us the BIG question, was Christ Himself a virgin? (Ok, maybe only I want to know this)

Hm, had Christ been initiated in the sacredness of sexual/spiritual experience by his journeys in Mystery School teachings?

(Mary does not fully answer this question in this chapter...the more detailed answer comes in a later chapter.)

Question from Rebecca, “Mary, I have felt you urging me to write about this for a few days now. It just seems so personal that I have hesitated, even though I, myself, have wondered if you had any deep intimate relations before you met the Christ. Yes, I’ve wondered what your duties were as a sexual healing priestess. It is well known that you were trained to be a priestess in the Temple of Isis.”

Mary Magdalene:

Response by Mary Magdalene, “I laugh a little at your hesitancy to approach this topic, as I can see you’re burning with curiosity to know more about this.

One reason you are so curious, Rebecca, is that in the past few years your own ancient training as a sexual healing priestess has come to light. You have discovered the magic of your own gift and it is only natural for you to have curiosity and the desire to know more.”

Mary continues, “I shall explain. Be it known that an initiate in that timeframe would never reveal this kind of information. It is only now with the Divine feminine restoration of power that this information can be made available. The purpose of making these secrets available is not to satisfy idle curiosity, yet to contribute to the awakening of other priests and priestesses of the Isis- Hathor lineage.”

“This knowledge is also being presented with the goal of freeing men and women alike from the prison of sexual self-judgment. I was dedicated to the Hathor Isis sect at a young age. I continued my studies with them in segments of time, going back to be with my parents at intervals for as long as my young heart desired. To truly become a dedicated priestess or priest, it was necessary to be fully committed from the heart.”

“The temple did not take young children and force them into service. It was always the heart of those initiates- in- waiting that energetically called to us when they felt their own hearts stirrings.

It was only then that we, the high priestesses of the temple sent out preparation energy.

If a child desired this training and dedication, they were also encouraged to go back to family life for periods of time. This was to enable them to stay bonded to family and to have the power of choice up until they took their final vows.”

“Even then, if an initiate fell in deep love with a man or a woman and felt moved to leave the order, this was permitted with full blessing and even celebrated. True service only comes when the heart’s desires are fully acknowledged. You have the power of choice in every moment, so did we! There is a contentment that comes from knowing that you are in service, because your heart deeply desires it.”

Mary Continues:

“In my early years of training, I was not trained to be a sexual healing priestess. Instead, as all initiates, I was introduced to deep spiritual practices. I became skilled at listening to my own guidance and being in the heart.

For a time, I was instructed in the use of healing herbs and oils. My hands developed healing properties and when combined with the properties of herbs, oils, or both, powerful healing occurred!”

“One of the energies I naturally emanated was the “spirit of peace”. I would often be called to the bedside of a dying person as I could lay my hand gently upon them and they would become instantly very peaceful.

I realize now that my image has been projected as the fiery one, and certainly not much of my “peace bringing “energy was even mentioned.”

Yet, it was my ability to hold peaceful space that was so very beneficial to my Beloved Jesus and to all those who followed us. At times the crowd would become very restless as old beliefs were stirred up as they listened to the teachings of the Christ.

When old doctrines are deeply rooted, it can seem like a “betrayal” of the old to embrace the new. Even when the heart is screaming YES, YES, YES... the head can speak in a very critical voice that also screams...DANGER!

In times like this... when I felt the agitating forces exploding within and around the crowd...I would begin to call upon my natural gifts of peace keeping. Peaceful, tranquil energy would begin to descend as a gentle, calming rain and flood the troubled hearts with peace.

This fear of change is a natural emotion of man. We become so accustomed to believing what we have been taught that we feel terror when our heart questions.

Yet, every great discovery in science, spirituality, technology and emotional health leading to progress... has begun with questioning the old established and blindly accepted beliefs.

“There is so much in the reports of my life that are simply lies. It was my peace bringing and energy that often helped to settle down the arguments between the disciples. There was much jealousy and strife between them, as many did not fully understand the message of Christ's love.

There were equal amounts of love, honor, and Divinity for all. This was a hard concept for a typical male in those times. It was the woman in our little sect who kept the peace, especially, after the death and resurrection of the Christ.

Now, let me return to the topic we first approached. I feel that a bit of background was needed to lead up to this topic.

Is it really important to know if I was a virgin when I met the Christ?

Is it just assumed that because I was a sexual healing priestess that I had been with many men?

Is it also assumed that Jesus the Christ never had any experiences with women at all?

Yes, Rebecca, I will continue this topic in a later chapter.

For now, we have opened the door to many possibilities.

The church would have you believe that Christ was a mamby- pamby half'-human who had no interest in things of this earth.

How then could He have ever said, "greater things than this shall you do?" I assure you my Lord had every human characteristic that made him a very viral man.

He went through many initiations in Egypt that increased his powers and allowed Him to connect deeply with those he came to serve.

This topic will be continued soon."

From Rebecca:

Mary Magdalene did not completely answer the question of whether or not she was a virgin when she came to Christ. She also does not answer the question of what types of experiences Jesus had.

(Mary is certainly not obligated to answer ANYTHING of such a personal nature...and I sure have a lot of nerve!)

To me, the fact I am not struck down by lightning just proves that the Divine and the human are partners in every sense of the word.

In a subsequent chapter, Mary goes more deeply into this topic. Yet in such a private, tender way that all sanctity is preserved.

The lesson for me seems to be...Thank you for allowing your human curiosity to spring forth...yet, at the same time that is quite a ballsy question to ask.”

Rebecca continues:

Still... the intimacy between Mary Magdalene and Jesus is something many people may have wondered about. ...and by the way...I am just the fearless Huckleberry to ask!

Mary Magdalene would not have chosen me and asked me to write about her if she did not trust the information would shake things up a bit!

It has been far too long that the topic of sexuality and sacredness been looked upon as separate.

Now is the time for deeper understanding.

We are free to wonder and to ask questions of any and all Deity figures, Saints and even the angels with no fear of punishment for our curiosity.

If any High being of Light threatens punishment for curiosity...they are NOT truly Beings of Light! There is no Being of Light so insecure they would demand punishment or even worship!

PS: Contributions gratefully accepted:

<http://rebeccamarina.com/patron-rewards/>

Would you like to receive a full copy of this manuscript as an e book ?

The book is still a work in progress however, all who contribute will be the first to receive an e copy.

This Magdalen Book is very provocative yet deeply healing!

I was surprised that Mary even shared the initiation ceremony of a sexual healing priestess. That hidden knowledge may shock you yet make you cry at the tenderness of it! Some contributions have come in and we are very grateful

Publishing expenses are still in excess of 1600.

This will cover the cover design, editing, optimizing, and publishing.

Assistance.

Please give as your heart guides you...ask Mary if it is right for you to contribute to this healing work.

<http://rebeccamarina.com/patron-rewards/>